2011

Tap into Oklahoma's entrepreneurial strength at Oklahoma's Technology Ventures Summit focusing on emerging technology deals and nationally acclaimed training for entrepreneurs and angel investors.

Register online now to attend the Technology Ventures Summit

Oklahoma has arrived as one of the best places in America to build a world-class company. The Technology Ventures Summit celebrates this strength by showcasing our most promising technology deals to a network of local and national investors. The event also provides a day of extensive training for aspiring entrepreneurs and angel investors.

Day One offers two concurrent workshops – for Entrepreneurs and Angel Investors.

Day Two showcases up to twelve of the state's best entrepreneurs presenting their plans for commercializing innovative technologies to an audience of angels, seed funds and venture investors, while OU and OSU share their most promising new developments. The day concludes with a lunch featuring keynote speaker and pioneering Oklahoma entrepreneur Dr. Scott Rollins, President and CEO of Selexys, sharing his story about company formation- from start-up to IPO.

Registration is simple at www.ocib.org/tvs
